Reflecting on ballet class with Carrie Towle

What aspects of dancing did the teacher emphasize in his instructions?

What aesthetic values did the teacher mention in the course of his instruction? What aesthetic values can you infer from his teaching?

How did you feel in your body while attempting this movement?

What do you think you would need to learn to do to more deeply embody this movement?